

New to the Devonport Peninsula?

Here is some useful information:

- Devonport Directory: www.devonportdirectory.co.nz/
A website with heaps of fantastic and up-to-date local information. Anything from local schools and sports clubs to community events and links to the tide table, weather forecast, etc. The site is run by local resident and computer whiz Christopher Jones.
- The Devonport Flagstaff:
A free fortnightly community newspaper that keeps you up to date with any local news and issues. It gets delivered to much of the peninsula. You can also pick up copies at the Devonport i-SITE (see below) 445 0060
- Devonport i-SITE:
Visitor Information Centre that offers local and national information for free. A great help when planning your first outings in the Auckland region or in NZ, or when you are looking for any local information at all. Also helpful with information such as local accommodation, art gallery listings, etc, which are also listed here:
www.northshorenz.com
3 Victoria Road, downstairs, 446 0677 or visitorinfo@northshorecity.govt.nz
- Devonport Community House:
The Community House offers all kinds of classes and courses every week, as well as an After School Club. A great place to meet people and become involved in the community. Also a venue for hire.
Pam Churchill (Manager), 32 Clarence Street, 445 3068 or devonportcomhouse@xtra.co.nz
To view the website, see <http://www.devonportcomhouse.co.nz>
- Devonport Community Coordinator:
A source of local information and community support for new comers or old timers. Publication of monthly Devonport Peninsula eNEWS that lists all kinds of community events and news.
Maire Vieth, 3 Victoria Road, upstairs, 445 9533 or dportcomm@xtra.co.nz
- The Rose Centre:
Community Theatre and House of the Belmont and Bayswater area, offering plays and list of weekly classes and courses.
Runs a social English Group on Tuesdays and Fridays:

SOCIAL ENGLISH GROUP: 10am - Noon. Donation. Meet other immigrants and New Kiwis & improve your conversational English. Tutors: ESOL Home Tutor Scheme (North Shore) Phone: Birgit 489 2078
--

Richard Parmee (Manager), School Road, 445 9900 or rosecentre@xtra.co.nz
For more info, see <http://www.rosecentre.co.nz/>

- Settlement Support New Zealand (SSNZ) North Shore:
 Help migrants to settle in their new communities by providing information about living in NZ, connecting to local services, free orientation seminars (NZ Health, Tax and Education Services), general support and advice.
 Sarb Lester (SS Advisor), Norman King Building, Ernie Mays St, Northcote
 486 8635 or ssnznorthshore@raeburnhouse.org.nz
 For more info, see: www.northshorecity.govt.nz Keyword: Settlement Support
- Devonport Transfer Station:
 This is a privately owned and operated dump, where you can dispose of garden rubbish, and most other inorganic rubbish for a fee. It is also our local recycling centre. Recycling is FREE.
 27 Lake Rd, 445 6914
- Devonport Plunket:
 Parenting support, Well Child Health Care service, free health checks, new mother coffee groups, Baby Groups, car seat rentals, etc. For more info see www.plunket.org.nz
 3 Wairoa Rd
 Coordinator Jenny: 445 2862
 Plunket Nurse: Yvonne Leyman: 445 1283
- The Claystore:
 The Claystore is Devonport's Community Workshop. You can finish a project or fix a broken item here for a small donation. Volunteers are there to help, and lots of tools and machines are available for wood and metal working.
 27 Lake Rd, Open Monday through Saturday, 9 am - noon
 For more information, email George Crook @ ganda@xtra.co.nz
- Devonport Community Garden:
 Devonport's new community garden welcomes new people who are keen to learn about organic gardening in a community atmosphere. A little garden with big plans.
 The volunteers meet every Sunday from 2 – 4 pm in the garden at Mount Cambria Reserve.
 For more info, please contact Charlotte @ 021 949 049 or charlottes@psp.co.nz
- Play-a-While Toy Library
 A community run Toy Library with more than 800 quality toys to borrow.
 Thursday and Saturday mornings at Devonport Community House
 For more info, contact Siobhan @ 446 3169 or see www.playawhile.org to join online and browse the catalogue.
- Devonport/Bayswater Community Constable:
 You can contact him with community policing issues.
 Stephen O'Reilly, 488 6200
stephen.o'reilly@police.govt.nz